

Science Values (Resilience, Curiosity & Happiness) Light • Can I alter the size of a shadow? • Why is the shadow of my ruler pink? Can air make shadows? • How does light travel? Can light bend? • Experiment in to microwaves and using wavelengths to show the speed of light. • Is the reason that nothing can go faster than light because we have not tried hard enough? • Why does my straw appear to split in water? • Does the back of a rainbow look the same as its front side?	Computing Values (Curiosity, Responsibility and Confidence) Creating Media- Webpage creation • What makes a good website • Becoming a web designer • Copyright or CopyWRONG? • How does it look? • Follow the breadcrumbs • Think before you link	History Values (Curiosity & Respect) The Mayan Civilisation • Who were the Maya and what was their civilisation like? • Why should we remember the Maya? • Learn about Maya religious beliefs. Which other civilisations or religions have similar beliefs? • Learn about the number system used by the Maya.	 Year 6 Summer 2
PSHCE Values (Happiness, Resilience and Courage) Growing and Changing • I look great! • Media manipulation • Pressure online • Helpful or unhelpful? Managing change • Is this normal? • Making babies Year 7 Transition Project	Art Values (Curiosity, Resilience & Courage) • Continuing with inner portraits DT Values (Resilience and curiosity) • Moving toys • Cooking Music Values (Courage and Happiness) Production rehearsals- Paws and Claws	P.E. Values (Resilience & Confidence) Athletics • Participate in running events to enhance speed and endurance. • Jumping disciplines, such as long jump and high jump, to improve coordination and agility. • Throwing activities with a focus on strength and accuracy. • Relay races to promote teamwork and strategic thinking, highlighting the importance of fitness and sportsmanship. P.E. lessons will be on a Tuesday and Thursday (S4A).
English Values (Curiosity, Respect & Courage) Wonder by RJ Palacio • Empathy • Precepts • Author's craft • Summarising • Writing from a different point of view	R.E. (Mrs Smith) (Respect and Courage)
Trips and Experiences Treat Week- to be finalised End of year play- Paws and Claws Leavers' Assembly	Maths Values (Resilience, Courage & Curiosity) Mrs Longton Statistics Algebra Mrs Thomson Position and Direction Converting units		